Making 'Sense' of Parenting Workshops ... a sensory approach with children

Learn the sensory approach to parenting your child with special needs. Gain understanding and methods to help improve life at home and school. Discover how to use a sensory approach to help calm or activate your child's behaviors.

Bring your questions to each session for our occupational therapist.

October 2 Making Sense – of self, others, environment
October 9 Uncommon Sense – learning and behavior are affected
October 16 The Listening Ear - how to tune in . . .
October 23 Play Sense – the power of creative and spontaneous intervention
October 30 Sensational Love – the climate for healing

We meet Tuesdays in October from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm at Comprehensive Therapy Center, 2505 Ardmore SE, Grand Rapids, 49506.

Cost is $15 per person per session: Cash, Check, VISA, MC, Discover.

Call 616-559-1054 to reserve your space. Class maximum is 15 people.

Comprehensive Therapy Center offers speech-language pathology, occupational therapy, sensory and motor therapies. Therapy and Fun, our award-winning summer outreach program and our school-based special education services help more than 300 children with special needs each year. Therapists and teachers also offer individual sessions, academic tutoring specializing in learning disabilities and brain injury, and educational classes for caregivers.

Accredited by CARF, Comprehensive Therapy Center's mission is to provide therapeutic and advisory programs to individuals through skill building, academic enhancement and social emotional support. We help people walk, talk, learn and play – so they can read, write and work.
