Happy Valentine's Day!

As a child somewhere once said, "Love is when you go out to eat and give somebody most of your French fries without making them give you any of theirs."

We hope you are having a great day full of the people you love sharing your french fries with!

From Our Sensory Workshops: Finger Jello Hearts

- Dissolve 2 packages of unflavored gelatin in 1 cup of cold water. Set aside.
- In a saucepan, bring 1 cup of water to a boil and add 1 package of sugar-free red Jello. Bring back to a boil and then remove from heat.
- Add the gelatin mixture to the hot Jello mixture. Stir and add 1/2 cup cold water.
- Carefully pour the mixture into a greased 8x8 pan. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate until solid.
- Use a heart-shaped cookie cutter to make hearts!

If you take photos of you and your children doing this activity, please share with us! We'd love to share your action shots on our website.

Our Mission

We provide therapeutic and advisory programs to individuals through skill building, academic enhancement, and social emotional support. We help people walk, talk, learn, and play - so they can read, write, and work.
